WINE TOUR

Special packages designed for wine-loving real tennis players

FULL DAY CHÂTEAU MÉDOC

When one thinks of the Médoc, one immediately thinks of the vine and its exceptional wines, the vision of a wine-growing area with a worldwide reputation and 60 classified growths. On this châteaux road, discover the most famous properties such as Château Margaux or Château Latour.

The wines of the Médoc are only red wines, made from a blend of the three main grape varieties: cabernet-sauvignon, merlot and cabernet franc. Additional grape varieties can be added: Petit Verdot and Cot (called Malbec in Bordeaux).

Discovery of 2 Grands Cru Classés in a private lounge around a wine tasting.

FULL DAY CHÂTEAU SAINT EMILION

Two thousand years of history between men and vines await you in the Jurisdiction of Saint-Emilion, a remarkable example of a historic wine-growing landscape that has remained intact.

Charming medieval village located in the heart of the famous Bordeaux vineyard, Saint-Emilion is unique by the extent of its vineyard, the quality of its wines and the majesty of its architecture and its monuments.

Enjoy a lunch in a french brasserie with local products.

A beautiful escape in the vineyards to pierce the secrets of this Saint-Émilion terroir, and better understand the work done at the properties.

You will taste the wines of the Domains and discover the subtleties of this atypical soil with a view on Saint Emilion.

WINE MUSEUM

Considered the symbol of Bordeaux wine tourism, La Cité du Vin has attracted more than 1,500,000 visitors with its unique architecture that offers access to the world's wine riches and diversity.

It ranks 7th among the best museums in the world according to National Geographic.

Its approach to wine, which it presents in its cultural, patrimonial, civilizational and universal dimensions, offers us a spectacular journey around the world, through the ages and cultures.

BOAT TOUR

The pinasse is the traditional boat emblematic of the Bayssin d'Arcachon at 45 minutes of Bordeaux.

It is traditionally used for fishing and oyster farming.

You will embark at the Bassin d'Arcachon to discover the treasures of the Bassin and Dune du Pyla the highest sand dune in Europe. You will enjoy sea food and local oysters. (5H)

A NIGHT AT THE CASTLE

This château offers a unique experience in the heart of the Médoc, that of living the life of a Château in this place steeped in history and refinement.

Since its construction in 1565 by Bishop François de Foix-Candale, then the reign of the Dukes of Epernon, its reconstruction in 1757 by the Marquis de Brassier, then the Achille-Fould family until 1986, the castle never ceases to amaze, as much by its wines as by its living spaces
